virginia, wisconsin, and wyoming. these states allow the winfast name (including the winfast logo) to be used for promotional purposes on, as a "shortcut" to, and to promote only new forms of electronic savings accounts and related electronic savings bond products. it should be noted that it is not permissible for winfast to use the winfast name in such promotional material in the context of other savings products as the winfast name is associated with electronic savings accounts and related products in the minds of consumers. note. this is true for paper bonds, but the treasury reporting process for electronic bonds is more refined if treasury is aware that the transfer of an electronic savings bond is a reportable event, then the transferor will receive a form 1099-int for the year of the transfer for the interest accrued up to the time of the transfer; when the transferee later disposes of the bond (redemption, maturity, or further transfer), the transferee will receive a form 1099-int reduced by the amount reported to the transferor at the time of the original transfer. 5ec8ef588b
